

Stanzdev Commission Agreements

Payment

- Full payment must be made before any website files will be sent (except special cases)
- Any work starts after confirmation of the availability and if possible to complete the request.
- I can reject any commission if I think it is not possible to fulfil the request.

Delivery

- Customers will receive the raw website files (HTML, CSS, JS, photos, etc).
- Hosting, domain name, emails configuration are not included.

Changes

- Minor changes can be made during development.
- Major changes (adding extra pages, major design rework, adding features that were not previously agreed upon), will result to extra charge.

Timeline

- Approximate estimates will be given based on the project scale and availability; delays may occur.

Refunds

- I do not offer refunds.

Ownership

- After making a full payment and receiving the website files, you become the full owner of the website files. However I may use the website for advertising purposes, examples to other customers, inspiration or other commercial or development purposes. You may refuse some uses by me via request in some cases.

Charges

- 1 Page (basic version) £13.99
- 1 Page (better version) £16.99

Bigger than normal sized projects (more than 5 pages) will be discounted only upon request. Request for a cheaper price may be made for per page.

Communication

- You will need to give all necessary information promptly.
- Any lack of communication and information towards the commission might delay delivery.

Support

- Support is not provided post-delivery unless agreed otherwise, I may not always be available for support

Liability

- I am not liable for any problems that occur because of changes performed by the you or any other party post-delivery.

Abandoned Projects

- In case of lack of communication from the customer's side for over 7 days, the project can be closed.

Content

- You will need to provide all the text, graphics, logos, and other material necessary for the project. You will have to do so.

Third-Party Services

- Any problems resulting from issues with the host, registrar, API or any other third-party services are my not fault and may not be fixed.

Browser Compatibility

- The website is meant to work on up-to-date web browsers only; compatibility with older versions is not guaranteed.

Changes:

- Any changes made to the website after delivery are at your own risk, and I will not fix.

Accuracy

- While I try my best in development in rare cases there might be errors on larger projects, I am not obligated or fix for any errors. Please note this is very un-likely to happen.
